DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 04 January 2006 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

2. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

3. Claim 27 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Claim 27 direct to non functional information stored in a memory since the stored information do not provide any functional interrelationship to the memory for controlling the memory to access the information or readout information , or impart to any software or hardware structural components to perform certain function that is processed by a computer the claimed non functional information stored in the memory do not make them statutory . See MPEP 2100.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Art Unit: 2621

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

5. Claims 28-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Squilla et al (5,898,779).

Regarding claims 28-30, Squilla discloses computer readable memory string a program for controlling a processor for carrying out a method of image processing (Figs 2, 4-7). It is noted that all steps of the image processing method in claims 18, 22 and 23 have not been recited in claims 28-30.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 1-26 are allowed.
